A CHECK LIST

Q99 Occasional Papers (QCOPs) complement the Q99BOOKS set of 25 Penguin checklists.

They are mostly new checklists under development and are less uniform, less complete and more annotated. They are available free to interested/contributing parties. Group 1 QCOPs continue or elaborate on existing series, Group 2 ones list series outwith the Q99 'Edition 1' product.

For more details see the Q99 'Roadmap'. This QCOP complements the author's article in Issue 69 of The Penguin Collector, December 2007 and Duncan Smith's web site www.penguiniseretravel.com

It is neither a Penguin nor a PCS publication.

OTHER WAR TIME VARIANTS

Two titles, Together (502) and Escape to Switzerland (490 = SE2) exist in the later (1945) Services Editions. There are no Travel and Adventure titles in the EVT (Education and Vocational Training) or Egyptian series. An Air Fighter's Scrapbook is known in an Australian edition.

GAMES COVERS

The 'Abram Games' pictorial covers of the 1950s included two titles with cerise spines, as listed below:

No	Title	Author	Cover	Date	+

1250	Tibetan Marches	André Migot (Peter Fleming trans./intro.)	Stanley Goodsell	1957	3

MERCHANDISE

If you seek more cerise, Art Meets Matter have produced coffee mugs for Together and Traveller from Tokyo and a 'Penguin Book Bag' with Siren Land on one side and Pearls and Men on the other. There is also a cerise pencil: One's Company on one side, Venture to the Interior on the other. And, for the traveller who tires of his or her armchair, there is a deck chair decorated with Sea and Sardinia.

CELEBRATIONS

In September 2007, 36 'Celebrations' titles appeared, B format with traditional horizontal grids, spine numbers and colour coding. Three of these, listed below, are cerise, though on the back cover they are referred to as pink.
